

Recommended Restaurants in Tel Aviv

Hiba

It is the roots and culture of the Mediterranean basin versus Israeli farming, it is Middle Eastern tradition versus contemporary modernism, it is culinary precision versus roughness, local smells, food stains, rawness and joyfulness.

For reservations click here

Taizu

Taizu encompasses Chef Yuval Ben Neria's personal culinary journey and exploration of local street food from five Southeast Asian countries: India, China, Thailand, Vietnam and Cambodia.

For reservations click here

Nam

Originating from Bangkok, NAM Restaurant introduces authentic Thai dishes with a modern style. Evoking a sense of culture as well as comfort, NAM combines the highest quality of ingredients.

For reservations click here

Mashya

Mashya is a restaurant with a focus on design, whose bright, clean look is trimmed with the rough and rugged textures of locally-sourced natural materials, helping it blend with the spirit of the nearby outdoor market.

For reservations click here

A

A is a modern approach to Japanese cuisine with premium local ingredients selected and explored through different methods- raw, fried, iron, grill, and dry aged, with contrasting elements in every dish.

For reservations click here

Naifeh

The dining experience at the restaurant is a journey between past and present, with human warmth and refined elegance. Naifeh is the first to bring Shami cuisine to the heart of the culinary industry in Tel Aviv with a modern interpretation.

For reservations click here

FU Sushi

Enjoy Tel Aviv's energetic vibe in a unique ambiance. Whether you are out with friends, or just have a nighttime craving for excellent sushi, FU is the ultimate place to be.

For reservations click here

Bar 51

At Bar51 you can enjoy a glass of wine from an extensive wine bar menu alongside small plates by acclaimed chef Moshiko Gamlieli.

For reservations click here